Dearest Mother & Daddy:

Today I received 7 letters from you dated from Dec. 12 to Jan. 3/45. I got the picture pasted on the back of the paper that showed Daddy bowling. It looked just like me or Daddy either one. Didn't it?

Today I worked all day with the supplies, and went down to the company twice to issue clothing and get some papers signed. This morning I drew some clothing. I sure like the work, but it looks like it won't last long after all of this new stuff is issued. I will sure hate to leave a good job like this.

Sure was sorry to hear that Harry Stein died. I thought that he stopped working a few years ago. When did he go back to work? Huh? How is your blood presure now? Normal?

Did Lottie call Dr. Einstein to find out how much a half of $11.98 was for the bridle? We sure have a mathamatical family, don't we?

I wouldn't have minded giving Celsius many cigarettes, because they are issued to us over here, and you can't even buy any, but we didn't have any issued for about a month at the time.

How about sending the clipping from the Tuscaloosa News about me? Don't you think that I might like to see it too. About 50 boys from all over the States have received one like it from their folks. My name is sure going around the headlines, isn't it? The War correspondent with our division sent it to the Associated Press, and they distributed it all over the country.

If you can't get the radio, howabout getting me just a little speaker from an old radio at the radio shop, and sending it to me. I can hook it up to someone else's radio. That won't weight but a few ounces. Right?I am still waiting for the camera you weresupposed to send to me. Did you ever send the money to Eastman that I told you about? If not, do it right away. I need a camera, so get on the ball, and send a lot of films also. Right?I put $50.00 extra in the Soldier's Deposit today. It is money that I collected on back loans.I think you ought to take some sitting up exercise for your back. You are getting the wrong kind of exercise in the store, and need some other kind of exercise. How about trying it? O.K.?

Got a letter from Eve Hoffman and it seems that your sister sold her harp, and she didn't like, so she is now living with her older brother, Abe.

That isabout all for now, so be good, and write soon.

Love,

Harold
